

to do the work, the code still applies, and, in fact, the protection still exists. I would assume if something should go wrong later on, of course, that could be a problem for whoever did the work without following the code.

SENATOR BROMM: I'll visit with you more by Select File.

SENATOR LYNCH: Okay.

SENATOR BROMM: Thank you, Senator Lynch.

SENATOR LYNCH: I'd be happy to. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Lynch, there are no further lights on, you are recognized to close with six seconds left. Closing is waived. The question is, shall LB 1304 be advanced? All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record. We have a very rare occurrence up here, our Clerk made a mistake. The board was cleared, we need to take that vote over again. So the question before the body is, shall LB 1304 be advanced? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President, on the advancement of 1304.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Coordsen, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR COORDSEN: Point of personal privilege.

SPEAKER WITHEM: State your point, please. Members, could we have some attention to the chair of our Exec Board who has a very important point of personal privilege?

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to share with the members of the body that some time during the midnight hours of last night our first laptop prototype is up in operation on the back desk on the north side of the Chamber. Because of cable problems, we were only able to get one up and we're going to have some modifications going into it. Currently, what is on the program is the agenda, the bill status, the text of all the bills, any amendments that are currently on file, and the fiscal notes. Hopefully, within the next 24 hours, we will also have committee statements and the statement of intent of the bill. The reason for announcing this
